THE DALLY HERALD.

THE HERALD PUBLISHING CO.

R. C. Chambers, President, Heber J. Grant, Vice-President, Elchard W. Young, Manager,

OFFICE, THE HERALD block, corner and First South streets. West Temple a Salt Lake City.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. DAILY, PER MONTH S CENTE Daily, six months $ 5 00

LEAD-Brokers' price, $2.90; exchange price, $3.00.

Trying to pull the St. Paul off is stern work.

high tide. It is high time.

nize the Cubans as they pass by.

dering Willie of Republican politics.

than a stable boy.

The Cleveland Plain-Dealer says: the law of finance as it is in silver. a garter." Honl soit qui mal y pense.

As St. Paul said to the Ephesians woe be to him." at Miletus so may the St. Paul say to duty as long as possible.

In the deal for the Louisiana dele- owned the reople body and soul.

been more license that liberty in Phila- those states by such remarks, pathy from the English press on the report of the committee that investigated his charges. But he is getting all that he deserves.

by the senate the gold bugs will scarcely have the hardihood to say that free colnoge is a dead issue. They must realize that it is not even moribund.

said that "the veriest despot of story, the grand khan of Tartary, the great and talked like an ass.

The house committee on foreign atpolitical party or policy in America feetly well pleased with himself, turned when such party or policy is Republi- hurriedly to the Armenian question towards the press of the city because Protestants engage in controversy with of the stand it has taken on the police Roman Catholics and proceed to quote and fire commission bill. That the against them some passage of Scriphave been unanimous in their views authority they have for presuming to England, with all her boasted strength, on this bill should be very strong evi- set an interpretation upon holy writ.

Elmer B. Jones from a side of sole- to tell its meaning; and they insist that leather; but If he were twice as big and influential and many tings as smart as even his best friends would have us understand him to be, he would still jied by his contemptible innuendoes Protestants have no ground of argusgainst this paper in his speech yesterday," says the Descret News. That
That is the answer to the English is what we call a mild but well deserved rebuke administered in the served rebuke administered in t tried to frighten their children into meaning for the United States. obedience by lurid stories of hobgobare drifting away. It is thereof silver advocates-the mine owners-President Cleveland does not recog- as the very goblins of the financial tale he tells to fright their fearful souls. The mine owners are largely McKinley is fast becoming the Wan- responsible for the silver agitation. The mine owners make large profits It is a miscake to suppose the An amateur is one who thinks he mine owners employ the keenest and honor to succor the Armenians. does it just a little better than a pro- best trained intellects to fight the hattle for silver. The mine owners seek to secure the best price for silver. He represented the people of the Rocky mayor and city council in their efforts or reduce expenses.

I ameson once had hopes to become a great rider. Now he can never be more than a stable boy.

When a legislator makes insinuations

Teriary and city council in their efforts mountains as subservient to the mine owners, then added: "The veriest despot of story, the Grand Khan of Tartary, the great mogul, never had more submissive subjects than the Silver King of the Rockies; nor was ever tyrant more piteously exacting.

When a legislator makes insinuations

Teriary and city council in their efforts mountains as subservient to the mine owners, then added: "The veriest despot of story, the Grand Khan of Tartary, the great mogul, never had more submissive subjects than the Silver King of the Rockies; nor was ever tyrant more piteously exacting.

When a legislator makes insinuations mayor and city council in their efforts | mountains as subservient to the mine against anyone he thereby invites peo- is tolerated there. No party, no creed, ple to make insinuations against him. no business can thrive which dares to doubt in the realms of that monarch, the turns: "But none of these things way, one would be left to think from move me."

Ogres, veritably, these mine owners! here and there: It is deceptive to the way, one would be left to think from agine that England's arm, long as it this speech of the Wisconsin senator is, could do anything in mitigation foreign population of the Transvaul that in the west there were but two of the Armenian troubles. The suspicion is abroad in the land classes—masters and slaves—mine His lordship also turns apologist for that ex-President Harrison's articles in owners and their seris! That American all Europe's inactivity in the Armenthe Ladies' Home Journal are a joint government had abdicated and an tan troubles, although not bound to with the people and their spirit, or else establish order and allow commerce to is credited with fine diplomatic discrehe willfully misrepresents conditions in take its usual course, Ray. Dr. Talmage says "it is an order to frighten honest bl-metallists. Can it be that the people of England see things as they are and what it important duty to die." The doctor from their allegiance to the silver will be pleased with this apology for must all result in. seems to be shirking this important cause. If it is ignorance that leads Turkey and this confession of Enghim to utter such nonsense in the land's weakness? Especially we would The London Times admits that the Schomburak line was "a rough and ready makeshift." And it has proven, use it was bound to, a terrible missit.

Senale, it is utterly in-excusable in a ask, can it be that the Conservative party of England—the financers of that land—be pleased with the premier's apologies and confessions? If so, that dices of the people in order to gain an advantage in the controversy pow on it to be that the Conservative party of England—the financers of that land—be pleased with the premier's apologies and confessions? If so, that dices of the people in order to gain an advantage in the controversy pow on it to be that the Conservative party of England—the financers of that land—be pleased with the premier's apologies and confessions? If so, that dices of the people in order to gain an advantage in the controversy of England's greatness and domination.

The London Times admits that the Conservative party of England—the financers of that controvers application as ask, can it be that the Conservative party of England—the financers of that land—be pleased with the premier's application and application and the financers of that is willful misrepresentation to discovery and a set which stands for the maintenance of peace. It is a chief characteristic of the sect. If Christians of such humble mein can be seen that the Conservative in the financers of that is willful misrepresentation to application. The quakers are pre-eminently the Christian sect which stands for the maintenance of peace. It is a chief characteristic of the sect. If Christians of such humble mein can be applied and the financers of that is will be that the Conservative in the financers of that is will be that the Conservative in the financers of that is a provent in the financers of that is will be party of England—the financers of that is a chief characteristic of the sect. If Christians of such humble mein can be applied and the financers of that is will be party of the financers of that is a chief characteristic of the sect. If C senate, it is utterly in-excusable in a ask, can it be that the Conservative Republican presidential candidates now on in the senate and before the ing power; for the England that Lord who are gathering in southern dele- country, his utterances are still more Salisbury presents to us in his speech gates had better grapple them with to be dispised. Let Mr. Vilas take is a sorry speciacle of weakness. Nor hooks of steel else they may loose them which hom of the dilema he will, it is can it be that his lordship is quite sinstill bad for Mr. Vilas. No such con- cere in his remarks; or, if he is, then Liberty Bell has started from Atlan- states as those described by the Wista for its old home in Independence consin senator, and he only makes ties. By the Barlin treaty the sultan war cloud appears above the horizon, Somehow or other Governor Levi P. to rest their case upon the battle for and to guarantee their security against Somehow or other Governor Levi P.

Morton's boom doesn't have that bucy. bi-metallism is won as soon as it can the Circassians and Kurds. The suitan to be wondered at that some movement

THE RIGHT TO DEFINE. After the passage of a free silver bill association. "As a matter of fact," he in order to force the sultan to govern continued, "although the Monros doc- the Armenians well. Put the question in when Senator Vilas in his speech

When I stated in that dispatch and re Continued. "Although the Monroe doctrine is no part of international law, another form. Is England in another form. Is England in another form. Is England in the demandant with Turkey in the armenians well. Put the question in sanother form. Is England in the demandant with Turkey in the armenians well. Put the question in sanother form. Is England in the demandant with Turkey in the armenians well. Put the question in sanother form. Is England in the demandant with Turkey in the armenians well. Put the question in trine is no part of international law, another form. Is England in the demandant with the demandant with the armenians well. Put the question in trine is no part of international law, another form. Is England in the demandant with the question in the Armenians well. Put th when I stated in that dispatch and re- If not, of what binding force are iterate it now," said the English pre- treaties? What virtue is there in treamogul, never had more submissive mier, growing more animated as he is ties if the whole strength of the nasubjects than the silver king of the wont when about to win a great ad-Rocky mountains," he simply dis. vantage from a concession he has made played his ignorance and prejudice, to an opponent's position in argumententire advocates of the Monroe doc-The house committee on foreign af. trine. We mean the Monroe doctrine vote to censure Ambassador Bayard (cheers). In that sense you will not his Edinburgh speech, the resolu- find any more convinced supporters tion of censure should be amended so than we are." Having brought his auas to read that it is improper for our ditors to the point where they cheered rampant through the provinces inhabrepresentatives abroad to condemn a his words, the wiley old diplomat, per-

The cuteness of Lord Salisbury may be easily met, and for that matter ef-Senator Elmer Jones is quite sore fectually met, in this way: Whenever three daily papers, usually having such ture, the latter effectually set aside the diverse views on all subjects, should whole argument by asking them what dence to the sensior that his position. The church- and by that they mean the Roman Catholic church-is at once the guardian and expounder of holy writ-We do not know State Senator It alone possesses the power and is able Protestants have no right or power to invoke the testimony of holy writ against holy mother church, except they take holy mother church's intercome in for the rebuke which is mer- pretation of holy writ, and doing that, days that are gone by have sometimes the premier of England will define its

DAILY, PER MONTH
Daily, six months
Daily, per year
Daily, per but mistaken. Perhaps the senator government was weak, wretched, imfrom Wisconsin pittied these good peo- potent, and it was race faction and ple, it is quite evident that he looked creed faction driven to the highest upon them as very imple minded for point which brought upon the wretched The St. Paul is to be pulled off at he at once proceeds in his remarkable. Armenians, their terrible sufferings. effort to bring forward his first class. The sultan must have time to effect changes. Such was the substance of the premier's utterances as appoligist for the unspeakable Turk. Now hear him plead the justification for England's inactivity. It is a mistake to suppose that tween England and Turkey-the Cy- the children for the public schools."

oligarchy had taken its place in which answer the question why Europe does rights should be accorded this populamine owners were the ruling class and not interfere. None of the powers tion, and if they are not, and within a ration to the Republican national con-vention the balance of trade was in acquainted with conditions in the west, try; with national republican national con-acquainted with conditions in the west, try; with patience it will ultimately and other countries. President Kruger wish to interfere. The sultan's pres-delay the ameliorations and reforms If this is the kind of argument the demanded by local requirements in the single gold standard people are going provinces inhabited by the Armenians, Somehow or other Governor Levi P.

Morion's boom doesn't have that husyancy his friends would like it to have.
Platt must have stuck a pin in it The announcement comes from London that Welle K. Vanderbit is to marry an English duchess. But how marry an English duchess, but how marry an English duchess. But how marry an English duchess, but how marry an English duchess. But how marry an English duchess. But how marry an English duchess, but h a manner the guardian of Turkey, the power first of all that must insist upon "I have been held up as the denoun- the fulfillment of Turkey's engage-Salisbury, in his speech Friday night Salisbury says that England is not in at the banquet of the Non-Conformist | honor bound to go to war with Turkey tions entering into them does not stand behind them to enforce their obliga-"that as a rule of policy we are the Berlin treaty engagements, religious tions? Turkev is not carrying out her liberty is not secured to the Armen- against one of them. ians, they are not protected from the towns are laid waste, their homes are land's made desolate, through long, weary months unrestrained murder has run ited by Armenians, until red-handed massacre has numbered its victims by tens of thousands, and the world is sickened with the story of their sufferings. Yet proud England's premier says England is not bound to go to war to protect Armenians, and if England did interfere it can do nothing in mitigation, it can only threaten annoyances Christians in Turkey protected must

FOREIGNERS IN THE TRANSVAAL

look elsewhere for help than to Eng-

As one of the consequences of Jame-to spring forward and take part in the son's raid into the Transvaal there proceedings; and however much we

A great many simple minded folk in days that are gone by have sometimes tried to frighten their children into obedience by lurid stories of hobgody and they are not as the first meaning for the United States.

That doctrine, they know what it is, crs. but was a member of the reform would be mere nullilies without his presence.

The object of this committee was to secure from the Transvall government certain political rights, nor were its methods and war, and that their mistake grows of a great religious organisation. obedience by lurid stories of hobgoblins, spocks and ogres. It was not a good thing even for simple minded folk to do; it is generally condemned now, and happily it is a practice from which even the most ignorant
which even the most ignorant
venezuela question to Armenia affairs, are drifting away. It is therein his speech before the non-conform- death penalty with it. It is scarcely a narrow construction put fore all the more surprising to find in these hard and apparing times. In his speech before the non-conform- death penalty with it. It is scarcely a narrow construction put upon read with new interest. Capitain Allers in these hard and apparing times. find in these hard and scientific times to become the apologist of Turkey, flicted, though the Boer government lowers to the doctrine of non-resistance

WASHINGTON BUREAU.—1439 New the three hour speech he made against the three hour speech he made against age and fanntic community; the pre- Jameson had made his raid and been gentle spoken, and breathing tender-SIVER AVENUE. N. W. DAMES IN THE DESCRIPTION OF SILVER. He divided the advocates of mier hoped they would have a benesilver into three classes; those who are ficient effect as time progresses! Meanthere was a feeling of exultation over times when the spirit of the Master Address all remittances to HERALD interested in silver mining; those who time by spreading among the Turks the defeat of the English rather than flashed forth, the eyes grew stern, and are heavy debtors; those who believe in the feeling flast their damping is Subscribers removing from one place to another, and desiring papers changed by the principle of bi-metallism. To the subscribers removing are heavy debtors; those who believe in the feeling that their dominion is the brow indignant; and with anger that was the more terrible because so present address. latter he proposed to address his reof horrors which can only be compared marks, but he halted long enough to to the days of Genghis Khan and landers, and that they falled him at threatened them with the damnation pay his respects to the other classes. Tameriane. While many influential the critical moment. It is very likely of hell. Nay, his sense of outraged Of the second class he said they might people ever that this was done by there is more or less foundation for justice was so tried that even the gen"deserve sympathy if they did not the sultan and his government with what he says. Hammond was an Uitshock it," a remark at once flipant and set purpose, the premier thought it lander, and that he was an associate benediction seized the scourge of unworthy of both the subject and a lidle as a dream to imagine he had or- of Rhodes no doubt has much to do ropes and drove from the temple senator. The third class was honest dered those cruelties. The sultan's with his being held at Pretoria on a the money changers who were making charge of high treason.

Boer government is closely akin to a upon the son of Mary says "the history of the Transvaal is glorious character, one who could that of a small, unenlightened, retro- bring a sword on earth as well as the which means to go to war with the sultan in order to force him to govern the Armonians is a narrow oligarchy, with a bad, inoffective administration." Of the conwell. The Berlin treaty merely bound effective administration." Of the pop-Citizens of all parties will uphold the represented the people of the Rocky well. The Berlin treaty merely bound the represented the people of the Rocky the signatory powers that if the sultan ulation who are outside the ruling great rider. Now he can never be more submissive subjects than the The Cyprus convention, which it will alone, have no voice in affairs, are exprus treaty contained no trace of an- Furthermore, he declares that 'they understanding to interfere in behalf of understanding to interfere in behalf of treated. The independence of the sucould have induced Lord Sallabury to preme court is constantly assailed by Cincinnati's new city flag looks like The business men find it prudent to pledge his country to such a desperate fairs has prevailed for years. All pesay nothing, and as for the politician undertaking. Should England inwho dares to flaunt his independence— terfere she could only threaten an-

President Kruger and the Boers are playing the part of the dog in the manger. Political tion, and it they are not, and within a spair over "Mathematics with reasonable time, it will rise up and M" and contrasting pleasures in take them while the Transvaal govern. ies not in the prescribed cirriculum. tion. If he possesses it, he cannot but characteristic of the sect. If Christians of such humble mein can be said to possess pride, then it would be right to say that they pride themselves on their love and advocacy of peace. Peace, then, being a chief characteristic of the sect's creed, and one in which they have an especial pride, it is only to be expected that whenever a war cloud appears above the horizon, though it may be no bigger than a man's hand, that the Quakers will begin to cry for peace, beave, between the many stated with the latest portraits. still bad for Mr. Viias. No such con-ditions exist in the Rocky mountain the world must revise its views of the which they have an especial pride, it ta for its old home in Independence could seneror, and he only makes are his the best of piedged himself to carry out without though it may be no bigger than a gin to cry for peace, peace, however remote the chances of war may be.

PEACE AND WAR.

Under these circumstances it is not

The peace cry comes in the form of a circular memorial of the representacer of the Monroe doctrine," said Lord ments in the Berlin treaty. But Lord of Pennsylvania New Jordan > between Mself and Venezuela to arbi- llam Steinway. tration, but thinks our government is likely to loose the firm ground thus assumed in its peaceful intervention by holding out the menace of war "as a companion," pays her this pretty

The "menace" referred to message land's message where it says the United States would "resist perially to the weary man. She is not by every means in its power, as wilful aggression upon its rights and interests, the appropriation by Great Britain of any lands, etc., which, after investigation, we have determined of right belong to Venezuela." Against this "menace" the society of friends protest, and invoke the peaceful spirit of the gospel. of the gospel.

Peace is a blessed thing: it may well be regarded as one of heaven's "Peasant Rebels," indicates the saligation, it can only threaten annoyances in seizing customs here and there!

If that is all Engiand can do, then England with all her boasted strength, and notwithstanding her magnificent navy, deserves to be and will be the Isughing stock of the world.

Armenia's trust in England is as dust, the people who wish to see Christians in Turkey protected must.

Well be regarded as one of heaven's best gifts to individuals and nations. It is a noble thing to strive for; and it is a noble thing to strive for; and it is worthy of all honor and praise. But it must be remembered that we like in a world where all things are one of the story of a People's War. "The But it must be remembered that we like in a world where all things are one of the story of a People's War. "The But it must be remembered that we like in a world where all things are one of the story of a People's War. "The But it must be remembered that we like in a world where all things are one of the story of a People's War. "The But it must be remembered that we like in a world where all things are one of the story of a People's War. "The But it must be remembered that we like in a world where all things are one of the story of a People's War. "The But it must be remembered that we like in a world where all things are one of the story of "The German Struggle for Liberty." as the story of a People's War. "The But it must be remembered that we like in a world where all things are one of the story of "The German Struggle for Liberty." as the story of a People's War. "The German Struggle for Liberty." as the story of a People's War. "The German Struggle for Liberty." as the story of a People's War. "The German Struggle for Liberty." as the story of a People's War. "The German Struggle for Liberty." as the story of a People's War. "The German Struggle for Liberty." as the story of a People's War. "The German Struggle for Liberty." as the story of a People's War. "The German Struggle for Liberty." as the story of a People's War. "The German Struggle for Liberty." cause a resort to force is always possible. Therefore in diplomatic intercourse between nations, in the background, over sensitive people may alwave see lurking in the shadows grim visaged war with wrinkled front, ready to spring forward and take nart in the cause a resort to force is always pos-

of the house of God a den of thieves Having the form of a republic, the and robbers. If one looked tyranny in its treatment of the vast these times, he would doubtless population that has gone into the see the spirit of force, of war, in the Fransvaal since the discovery of gold. face and action of this wonderful char-That population is double the number | acter as well as the spirit of peace and of the governing class, and while upon gentleness that shone through word it fall the far greater portion of the and deed of this same man under other burden of taxation and expenses of circumstances; and it will not be difthe state, it has no share in the admin- ficult to think of a "God of battles" as istration of the government. Hammond | we'll as a God of peace in that same pledge his country to such a desperate undertaking. Should England interfere she could only threaten annovances in the seigning of customs the legislature. This condition of afthe scientists and the lover of science. Fairs has prevailed for years. All petitions for redress of grievances and excellent article on "Electrical Discharges investigated by means of Stereoscopic Photography," with a remarkably interesting photograph.

LITERARY NOTES.

> An autobiographic paper by Elizabeth Stuart Phelps in McClure's Magazine for February gives a picture of Emerson as the author saw him and heard him talk in her father's house at Andover in the days before the war. It this Godey's Magazine for February appears in a beautiful and original cover by F. C. Ransom—a quaint Japanesque but conception for St. Valentine's Day. Most striking amoug the contents is a profusely illustrated article on the formous museum freaks. Cleveland Mofett tells some of the richest stories about the late Eugene Field; and trated with the latest portraits.

The Century company has arranged

The February number of The Forum (which, by the way, closes the first decade of the Forum's existence) tives of the religious Society of Friends of Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware; and is addressed to the President of the United States and the senate and house of representatives in congress assembled, and protests against what is called the implied threat of war in President Cleveland's message on the Venezuela question.

The memorial commends the President for his efforts to induce Great Britain to refer the boundary dispute between itself and Venezuela to arbitribute: "She is the woman who with her husband and her sons is the best companion. She surrounds herself, unconsciously, with a spiritual atmosphere that is a rest to the weary, es-critic, contributes the first of several papers on Nelson's naval victories, dealing with "Nelson at Cape St. Vin-cent," which is illustrated with per-

Governor Wells is making considerable of a record with his exercise of the veto in line with what is right and proper. The governor is daily demonstrating hunser to be clear-neaded and mane of the proper stuff for the position.—Tintic kine...

Treat All Stock Alike.

Treat All Stock Allke.

The Junb wool growers have petitioned for the repeal of the befouling law. Their argument is that the law is unjust as cattle, pigs and horses befoul the streams, but the law does not reach them. It looks to us as if the right way to do would be to treat all allke and let the befouling law be made to fund its true purpose, that of projecting the citizens from the dangers of flithy water.—Manti Sentinel.

Wasnitch County All Right. From Territorial Auditor Caine's hien-nial report, we see that we live in the only county out of all the twenty-seven in our new mile that can enter upon his duties under a new form of government free from any inconcenness to the terri-torial or since treasury.—Wasaica Wave. The Office Seekers.

It is no wonder that there are so many office scekers how-a-days when they can get two or inrec thousand conars per sandom and only have a few only work. O perform during that time. There are thousands of men who work ten thies harder for one quair per day than carranging recorders up.—Beaver Utonian.

Salaries of Public Officers.

It is too much the rule that the moment It is too much the rule that the moment a man is elevated to public office, he must at once receive two or three times the pay he received while employed in brivate fire. Proude offices are not officially the pay he received while employed in brivate fire. Proude offices in cream work to be entering. There is cream work to be entering and they should receive just compensation, but you will hear men "too in this wise: "I carrot work for a bit is sharp because it casts a thousand collars to get the office," so such men we would say, it they want after the office of the payt men. Messatives

Mayor Kimbali struck a good note when in his message to the city standil he recommended the advertising of notion in the many savantages offered investors and home seekers should of the known in the dest passage manner. Our soil, climate, location and other menus are beyond the natural passesseements are beyond the natural passesseements are beyond the natural passesseement. Mayor Kimbali struck a good note when in his message to the duy submit he recommended the duy submit he roommended the duy submit he roommended the duy of the roommended the duy of the room and hold saventhages offered in the structure of the room in the cest pushable manner. Our soil, climate, location and cover mentages are beyond the natural posteronance ments are beyond the natural posteronance of many meighnoring sections. Locate Kender of the figure of t of many neighboring sections. Logue Re-

Since the women or Utah are eligible to vote and hold office from road oversear to governor we tail to see now they can be disquainfied for jury service. Yet its less alture without consulting the women have so declared. Women is some manbers of that body are alrued that with the women in the jury how that life in Utah would be rary uncoming the ler boodic me doers of the remembers of the legislature? They thin of City Patriot.

Disposal of Public Lands.

Our legislators should see that there

A Pure, Honest Ballot. A pure, honest ballot is above all reforms crystallizing to this end, and Utah should have the best possible under the discumstances. The Australian ballot system is a great improvement over our present system, but it is a costly one, it will make our elections three or four times more expensive than they now are, which can be illy afforcised at present. In time, when the first crush of heavy taxation has loosened, we can adopt such a system, but at present we believe our present system, with a few changes, will answer very well for the time being.—Mt. Pleasunt Pyramid.

CONSULT

ASTROLOGER if you want your fortune told.

Consult

when you want good shoes. Good shoes for everybody SPENCER & LYNCH CO., Leaders in Footwear, 124 Main st.

PEOPLE OF NOTE. Princess Mand's future husband, Prince Charles of Denmark, possesses a decided taste for divination.

Judge Hughes, the famous author of "Tom Brown's School Days," is in some-what indifferent health.

Jacques Anatole France the celebrated poet and Brierateur, has been elected to membership in the French academy to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Ferdinand De Lesseps.

Mrs. Dimmick, who is to wed General Harrison, married Walter Dimmick, a brilliant young lawyer fifteen years ago. He died while they were on their wedding tour For and scars the were mourning for him

Vordi, the great composer, has a bed-room in the basement of the villa which is now his home. It is a large apartment, in which the turniture is so arranged as to give the appearance of two rooms. One half thus serves as a study.

By all accounts the young dicks and duchess of Mariherough are exhibiting an almost amusing devotion to one another. Like Mr. Riske and his bride in Mr. Gli-bert's ballad, they appear to spend all their time in "commobial fondlings and af-fectionate reciprocities."

Eliza M. Mosher, M. D., of Brooklyn,

Calve has offended the social tribunal, for, when asked to sing at a function, she would appear only a few minutes be-fore the time for her to sing, and she would leave as soon as she was through. She also insists on payment i when invited to sing in private

HUMOR OF THE DAY

Bacon-So your friend is engaged to that Bosion girl, after all."
Eghert-Yes.
"How did he moit her?"
"He didn't. He simply froze to her."— Yonkers Statesman.

Teacher-Booby, can you tell me what the word removal means?

Hothly-Yes, malam, it's the feeling a feilow only eight years old has for one who is eleven.—Harper's Bazar. The editor of a New York comic paper has just had a picture taken of himself and his staff. That's the way an editor should always be—with his wits about him.—Yonkers Stateman.

Mother-I hear that the liguidenant had the impudence to kies you at the station. What did you do? Daughter-Oh, I kiesed him, too, so as to make people think we were relatives.— Filgende Biatter.

Satisfactorily Explained.—"Well, of all the impudence! Asking ms to help you because you have three wives to support!"
They don't belong to me, mister, no thin of the sort. They belong to me son in-laws."—Indianapolis Journal.

Nervous

Elections, no appetite and very much ruff down, was the condition of my husband. Eince taking Hood's Sarsaparilla he has wonderfully improved, and he now eats and sleeps well; in fact, he is all right.

Hood's Sarsaparilla we esteem very highly." Mrs. Mary Cor-Bigan, 1040 Cedar St., Pueblo, Colorado. Hood's Pills enre all liver ills, billous

ANNUAL

Muslin

Underwear

Sale

Commencing Monday, Feb. 3

GREATEST BARGAINS

Ever Offered in this City.

T. G. WEBBER, Supt.